Re: Fw: New Choice Pharmacy

Do you mean identifying the name and that it is part of the actual hospital?

Interesting. I would see if he can identify the pain management center. See if we can legitimize it in some way. Also, being a part of the Premier Hospital group also helps. However, the controls versus non-controls scare me...but Cardinal is OK with it.

Patrick??

Fw: New Choice Pharmacy

Take a look at this usage report on their purchases from Cardinal. They do buy some non-controls from them, but nothing from us.

New Choice Pharmacy

Good Afternoon Mike,

We have put a cap on controls for this account. It has come to my attention that his pharmacy acts as an out-pharmacy for both the hospital and the pain management center which is associated with the hospital.

He is also the manager of the inpatient pharmacy. He has indicated that he would like to open a second account for his inpatient business as well.

Thirdly, he is a part of the Cleveland Health Network which we are bidding on becoming the IDN's secondary distributor. The Cleveland Health Network is an IDN under the Premier Inc. (GPO).

For your convenience, I have attached his complete usage report (items that he buys from us and Cardinal).

Please let me know if there is anything else I can do in order to lift the cap. I will be in the Florida office all of this week.

I appreciated your all help and understanding.

Respectfully,
Constantine Moshos
